

Clymer Library July Programs

Note: the library will be closed on Tuesday, July 4th for Independence Day. Enjoy your holiday!

Adult Programs:

- 2017 Adult Summer Reading Continues Through August

Clymer Library announces the theme of the 2017 Adult Summer Reading Program, "Build a Better World." Patrons are invited to try something new this summer: at home, in the community, throughout the country, and around the globe. Read a new book, try a new craft, meet new people, and learn about new places. For more information, call the library at (570) 646-0826 or visit our website at www.clymerlibrary.org. Register online or at the library and read/log one book to receive a special gift. Patrons who read and log books will be eligible for our weekly prize drawings. All programs are free of charge.

- Cooking, Baking, and Publishing With Judith Rubin

On Saturday, July 1st at 2 PM, Judith will share her life's culinary experiences and explain what it takes to publish and sell a cookbook. She will also have some of her favorite recipes prepared for you to taste at the presentation. Judith's new cookbook, My Life's Recipe Collection and Creations, contains 547 recipes covering 30 categories of food from 12 nationalities, stories of her culinary experiences, and helpful hints galore! Her cookbook will be available for purchase at the presentation at a cost of only $25. Cash, personal checks, and credit cards will be accepted. Each copy will be hand autographed by Judith when purchased. Registration is required for this event. For more information and to sign up, please call the library at (570) 646-0826 or stop by the circulation desk.

- Zumba Returns This Spring and Summer

Come to the library on Thursday, July 6th at 1 PM for the second of four afternoon sessions of Zumba, an exercise that combines strength and resistance training with innovative dance moves, using a chair as your dance partner. It is a high intensity workout that focuses on defining your muscles, improving overall cardiovascular health, and burning major calories in the process. Registration is required for this event. For more information and to sign up, please call the library at (570) 646-0826 or stop by the circulation desk.

- Learn About Genealogy With Patrick Quigley

Genealogy expert Patrick Quigley returns to the Clymer Library on Thursday, July 6th at 6 PM, and then monthly through the fall to answer your questions about genealogy and assist with your family research. Patrick will be here at the library at 6 PM on the first Thursday of each month through October. Registration is required for this event. For more information and to sign up, please call the library at (570) 646-0826 or stop by the circulation desk.

- Crime in the 21st Century

On Tuesday, July 11th at 6 PM, the Friends of the Clymer Library presents an informative program on crime in the 21st century by Dave Carbone, a retired NYC Homicide Detective. Dave has had 23 years of service in total and for 8 years was assigned to the FBI in an especially dangerous area of Brooklyn. He has investigated more than 2,500 murders and is credited with solving most of them. Dave has been the subject of books and documentaries and has appeared on TV. If you own Dave's books, he would be happy to sign them. Registration is required for this event. For more information and to sign up, please call the library at (570) 646-0826 or stop by the circulation desk. This Program is appropriate for adults over the age of 18.

- Expectations in Young Lit Presented by Author Kim Briggs

Can you spot the bad guys in the books you're reading these days? In a world with many shades of grey, villains aren't easy to identify. Join author and writing coach Kim Briggs on Thursday, July 20th at 6 PM and learn how to identify the villain in the books you are reading. Registration is required for this event. For more information and to sign up, please call the library at (570) 646-0826 or stop by the circulation desk. Interest age group 16+.

- Brown Bag Book Club This Month

The library's Brown Bag Book Club will meet on Wednesday, July 26th at 12:30 PM. The club will read The Tea Planter's Wife by Dinah Jefferies. For more information, contact Melissa Lopez at the Clymer Library at (570) 646-0826.

- Learn About White-Tailed Deer

On Thursday, July 27th at 6 PM, the Monroe County Conservation District will present this fascinating program that focuses on a white-tailed deer's life, its food sources, habitat needs, and more. It also discusses deer management and how to avoid deer problems in your neighborhood, which is important living in this area. Registration is required for this event. For more information and to sign up, please call the library at (570) 646-0826 or stop by the circulation desk.

Children's and Teens' Programs:

• Check Out Story Hour for Children

The library's popular Story Hour for children ages 3-5 will be held on Monday, July 3rd, 10th, 17th, 24th, and 31st at 10:30 AM. Join Miss Love for a half-hour of songs, stories, and felt-board, followed by creative play with some special toy collections. Registration and adult caregiver participation are required.

• Book Babies Story Time Continues

Book Babies Story Time for kids ages infant-2 will be held Thursday, July 6th, 13th, 20th, and 27th at 10:30 AM. Join Miss Love for an interactive time of song, felt-board, rhymes, scarves, and stories designed specifically for babies and toddlers. Registration and adult participation are required.

• 2017 Kids' Summer Reading Continues Through August

The "Build a Better World" Summer Reading Program continues throughout the season. You can register online or at the library. Make sure to color a paper village model to decorate our library shelves. At each subsequent library visit, show how you are building a better world by adding your "Acts of Kindness" leaves to our tree display. The Summer Reading Program activities and programs focus on ways we can help build a better world. A calendar listing the specific days and times of each program and activity is included in the registration packet.

• 2017 Teen Summer Reading Continues Through August

Build a Better World! This year's Summer Reading Experience for Teens continues throughout the season. Sign up online or at the library for a free account, and then keep track of how much you read to earn prizes and raffle entries. The Grand Prize is a $75 Amazon Gift Card! The teen program is open to students who have just completed grades 6-12. Stay tuned for details about how to get started!

- Play Gizmo's Game for a Prize

Gizmo has made his home in the Children's Section of the library. He loves asking questions and seeing if the children can find the answers in the books displayed around him. Each week, Gizmo will ask a question and give a hint about where to look for the answer. Feed your response to Gizmo for a chance to win a prize from the treasure chest. Weekly winners will be drawn each Thursday by 3 PM. Ages 5-11.

- Show Your Patriotic Pride With Bingo

Celebrate Independence Day with friendly rounds of Patriotic Bingo on Monday, July 3rd at 1 PM. Small prizes will be awarded. Ages 4-11. Registration and adult supervision are required. For more information and to sign up, please call the library at (570) 646-0826 or stop by the circulation desk.

- Coming Soon: the Clymer Library's 2017 House Tour & Brunch

The Clymer Library's ever-popular summer fundraising and social event is back again this year. The 2017 Home Tour and Brunch will take place on Wednesday, August 2nd.

This year's tour will feature unique and elegant homes in Arrowhead Lakes, Locust Lake Village, Pinecrest Lake Golf & Country Club, Lake Naomi Club, and other prestigious communities. There are many different themes of design and fashion to see along the route, from rustic mountain venues to fashionable and informal residences. These homes can provide hundreds of decorating and renovation ideas for your next home décor project.

Spend a relaxing day with friends while touring these exceptional homes, each within a short distance of one another. Start the day by joining us for a Brunch Buffet at 10:30 AM at the Lake Naomi Club prior to the tour. The tour itself begins at 12 PM noon. Tickets for BOTH the Brunch and Tour are $38; tickets for JUST the Home Tour are $18 and tickets for JUST the Brunch are $20. All proceeds benefit the Clymer Library.

You can buy your tickets at the Clymer Library (115 Firehouse Road, Pocono Pines, PA 18350). Further details are available at the circulation desk or by calling the library at (570) 646-0826.

• Leave a Legacy at Clymer Library

Summer is here and the Clymer Library Custom Paver Sponsor Program is underway. The Paver Program gives library supporters the unique opportunity to permanently engrave their names, symbols, or logos into a sidewalk paver for installation in the entranceway of the library. Pavers can also be engraved in remembrance or in honor of a loved one.

The program gives donors the opportunity to show their support for the library for many years to come. All donations from the paver program directly benefit the library, which serves the residents of Tobyhanna and Tunkhannock Townships. To order a paver or to make a donation, visit www.polarengraving.com/clymerpavers, stop at the library's circulation desk, or call (570) 646-0826. All donations are tax deductible. Hurry, as the program will end on December 31st, 2017.

Clymer Library Seeks New Member for Board of Trustees

The trustees of the Clymer Library are seeking a resident of Tobyhanna or Tunkhannock Townships to become part of the library's board. In addition to being passionate about helping the Clymer Library continue to grow as a resource to the community, applicants should have experience in one or more of the following areas:

Finance/Accounting Expertise—Working with the library director, the board's finance committee is responsible for guiding the fiscal management, capital expenditures, and budget preparation for the library.

Marketing/Public Relations Experience—The marketing committee develops and executes all press releases, fundraising campaign communications, and contact with media outlets to promote the many programs and other library activities.

Non-profit Fundraising—As a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, the Clymer Library relies on community donations, grants, and various fundraising events that require creativity, planning, and coordination with library staff and volunteer management.

Facilities Management—The facilities committee assists the library director with day-to-day facilities issues involving contractors and vendors for building and grounds. The committee also assists in the planning of future renovations and refreshing projects.

If you or someone you know has relevant experience in any of these areas and is willing to join a working board, please contact the library at (570) 646-0826 for more information on the application process.
